

“Catholic Jeopardy” CONTEST 2010 (Sponsored by the Knights of Columbus)

(Mrs. O’Mara is our “Alex Trebek”)

When: Thursday, February 4, 2010 at 9 AM

Where: St. Joseph School

Game Rules:

- 1) The winner is the one who has the most play $ at the end. Everyone starts with $0 play money.
- 2) A question will be chosen.
 - a) There are two bonus questions in which the person who chooses the question will get a $500 bonus.
 - b) All contestants have the opportunity to answer the question.
 - c) If you answer correctly, the dollar amount will be added to your score.
 - d) If you answer incorrectly, the dollar amount will be subtracted from your score.
 - e) If you don’t answer, there will be no change in your score.
- 3) Once a person has answered, they will raise their answer above their head and towards Mrs. O’Mara.
- 4) There can be negative scores (until Final Jeopardy).
- 5) Final Jeopardy:
 - a) All contestants with negative scores are eliminated.
 - b) First, the topic of the question is shown and then, a wager is made and shown to Mrs. O’Mara.
 - c) Once everyone has made their wager, the question is revealed and the answer is made. Ties are broken by additional questions.

-------	-------------	--------------------------------------	---------------------------	------------	----------------

For each group, questions to the first five categories will be on the www.familycatechism.com website as described below:

1. Go to the www.familycatechism.com website. (Please get your parent's permission.)
2. You may want to play the tutorial video to get an idea of how to use the site.
3. Questions come primarily from the written answers given by Fr. Lawrence Lovasik.
4. Some questions also come from the "Doctrine – Moral – Worship Exercises" (see the "Tablet" icon directly above the "Dove" icon).
5. If you are searching for a particular subject, such as "Blessed Virgin Mary", you can also click "View" on the top right side and select "Subject Index".

The "Hodge Podge" category has a little of everything.
